Ontario-Montclair School District becomes 'Promise Partners' with Cal State Bakersfield

Cal State Bakersfield joins list of colleges ensuring place for OMSD students

ONTARIO >> The Ontario-Montclair School District formally accepted the pledge from Cal State Bakersfield to become a Promise Partner on Tuesday, ensuring a place in college for all district students with the goal of encouraging them to pursue higher education.

Other schools already pledged to be a Promise Partner include Chaffey College and Cal State San Bernardino.

“Bringing on California State University, Bakersfield, as a Promise Partner will provide OMSD students with more options for their future,” said Elvia Rivas, school board president, in a news release. “This helps us ensure a seamless world-class education for OMSD students as they go on to high school and beyond. We look forward to growing our partnerships with all of our Promise Partners to make college a reality for all of our students because they deserve it.”

Promise Scholars is a program that offers scholarship assistance to Ontario-Montclair district students who finish high school, assistance in navigating the road to college, takes students to college fairs and also educates parents on college and how to get there.
